

Had compensation cost been determined by the fair value method, net earnings and earnings per share would have been the pro forma amounts below:

	2002	2001	2000
Net earnings, as reported	$345.6	$267.0	$221.0
Deduct: Compensation expense	(17.1)	(11.8)	(9.9)
Pro forma	$328.5	$255.2	$211.1
Basic net earnings per share:
As reported	$1.75	$1.36	$1.13
Pro forma	$1.66	$1.30	$1.08
